Re: BPL CUP – GOULBURN RAILWAY BC – 19 JULY 2020

Goulburn Railway BC has put their hand up to be a host venue for the 2020 BPL Cup.

To refresh your memories, the BPL Cup could be described as a hybrid version of the highly popular BPL and Jack Attack. It is a fast paced, fun event with the added bonus that the winners go on to play in a national event in Queensland later in the year. (Club Pine Rivers on November 8-13, 2020.)

Winners of each State/Territory BPL Cup final will be provided with airfares and accommodation (where appropriate) to attend the National BPL Cup Finals and a free Jack Attack licence for their Club. The following awards will be presented at the conclusion of the National BPL Cup Finals.

- Winners medallions (x3) + prize money
- Finalists medallions (x3) + prize money
- Player of the National Final medallion
- Perpetual BPL Cup Trophy The total value of awards, airfares and accommodation will exceed $20,000.

This once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for most bowlers, with the final showcasing all the elements of a BPL match including the use of the electronic scoreboard, ground announcer, and use of the TV show-rink inside the grandstands. Information relating to the Finals will be sent to the eligible teams in advance of the matches being played.

Players must be from the same club: Format – 2 sets of 5 ends (with tie breaker if required). 2 bowl Triples, teams of 3 or 4 players (open gender). Registration cost: $60 per team.

Entries must be done online through the special Bowls Australia portal:
